Announcement:

Ms Pamela Button has the entire collection (to the latest no: 57) of the Cornucopia magazine, excluding issue no: 1 for sale. She describes their condition be in generally in good or even very good condition. A few are in "fair" condition. None are "mint", all having been read at some time, but some, having been purchased as back issues, are very nearly so!

The asking price is £650. This is less than half the £1385 price quoted by the Publishers as a special Subscribers' rate for re-print as Back Issues of 2 to 57. Buyer can collect from CT14 (Kent), or she can dispatch at Royal Mail Parcel Rates, with cost (including insurance) payable by buyer. Gross weight approx. 25kgs without packaging, so allow 27kgs. A donation will be made to the Anglo-Turkish Society should I be able to find a buyer.
